POISONED NEEDLE USED ON WOMEN

Investigation to Determine Extent of This Method of Entrapping Girls.

SEVERAL CASES REPORTED. Device Believed to Be That Employed by White Slave Agents.

New York, December 6.—The arrest of Armand Megaro in Newark, N. J., on the charge of having used a "poisoned needle" on Mrs. Marjorie Graff, of Brooklyn, while the young woman was seated beside him in a Newark theatre, has aroused the leads of societies for the protection of young girls.

As a result of the efforts of these societies an investigation was begun today by the Department of Justice to determine the extent of the use of the "poisoned needle" to entrap reputable young girls into white slavery.

Two inspectors of the white slave squad, of the United States marshal's office, are detailed to investigate cases that have been reported to the authorities in this city. More than a dozen such cases came to light to-day, and information has been received that similar devices have been used by white slave agents in other cities.

District Attorney Whitman was informed three weeks ago by Miss Loring Woodford, of the Friendly Society of St. George's Parish, of the experience of a young girl under the care of the society who had been stashed with a needle in a moving picture theatre in Thirty-third Street. The young man had attempted to carry the stashed girl into a taxi cab, but was prevented by a companion, who had inserted the needle into the leg of a physician, where she was revived.

Medical examination of the needle found in the box in which Megaro was seated when young Mrs. Graff was stashed, it is now being made. In the meantime, Megaro is being held in $20,000 bail. The police say that so far there is no evidence that he has ever been associated with white slaves or other shady characters.

Josephine Clark, a pretty young girl, told the Newark police to-day of an attack made upon her Thanksgiving on the same evening on which Mrs. Graff was stashed. She said she felt a sting in her arm as she threw her wrap across the arm of her chair. She became faint, but hurried to the women's retiring room, where she found a young man who had injected a needle into her arm.

She found a wound on her left arm, which she now being made. In the meantime, Megaro is being held in $20,000 bail. The police say that so far there is no evidence that he has ever been associated with white slaves or other shady characters.

Given Poisoned Candy. Another case in which the victim was a young girl, is being investigated by the Newark police. The girl, who is now in the observation ward of the Newark City Hospital, George Kewchick, is accused of injecting a needle into the arm of a young girl after drugging her, is under arrest.

INTRODUCES BRYAN AS NEXT PRESIDENT. Admirer Gently Reprimanded by Speaker, Who Says He Is Perfectly Happy.

Philadelphia, December 6.—When former Congressman L. Irving Handy, of Delaware, introduced Secretary of State William J. Bryan to the guests at the annual dinner of the Sons of Delaware here to-night as the "next president of the United States," Mr. Bryan told the dinner that he hoped they would not treasure up against him the "political indiscretion" of Mr. Handy's introduction.

Mr. Handy said, "I am perfectly happy." "I believe the toastmaster is of the opinion of many others," Mr. Bryan continued, "that my highest ambition has been to become president of the United States. That is not so. From my earliest manhood I have held a higher ambition. I have considered that only one man in a hundred years is born who is not more interested in the things that can be accomplished than in the things that can be done."

A Warning to Many Some Interesting Facts About Kidney Trouble

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physician in nearly all cases of serious illness makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly, the other organs cannot readily be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's disease, which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in 1912 in the State of New York alone. Therefore, it behooves us to pay more attention to the health of these most important organs.

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Klinger's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation, in most cases, is soon realized, according to sworn statements and verified testimony of those who have used the remedy.

If you feel that your kidneys require attention, and wish a simple bottle, write to Dr. Klinger & Co., Druggists, N. Y. Mention this paper, enclosed cents and they will gladly forward it to you by parcels post.
